MANITOBA OPERA PRESENTS
TOSCA
NOVEMBER 20, 23, 26, 2010

Heart-pounding drama, intense passion, and soaring melodies combine in Puccini's grandest opera, Tosca, presented by Manitoba Opera for three shows only at the Centennial Concert Hall, Saturday, November 20 (8 pm), Tuesday, November 23 (7 pm), and Friday, November 26 (8 pm).

Renowned for its high-voltage finale, this tragedy bursts with political intrigue, corruption, and hypocrisy and stars Canadian soprano Wendy Nielsen in her Manitoba Opera debut in the title role. Metropolitan Opera veteran and acclaimed Canadian tenor, Richard Margison returns to sing the role of Cavaradossi, the artist and Tosca's lover and the renowned baritone, Gaétan Laperrière takes on the role of the villain, Scarpia. The production will be sung in Italian with projected English translations.

Based on Victorien Sardou's drama, La Tosca, with libretto by Luigi Illica and Giuseppe Giacosa, some of Puccini's most deeply affecting music is featured in Tosca including Cavaradossi's "Recondita armonia" in Act I; "Te Deum"; Tosca's "Vissi d'arte," the opera's most famous aria; and "E lucevan le Stelle," Cavaradossi's farewell to Tosca.

Tosca was last presented by Manitoba Opera in November 1999.

THE STORY

In Napoleonic Rome of 1800, Floria Tosca, a celebrated opera singer, seduces all with her voice, but loves only one man, Mario Cavaradossi, a painter. This fills the sinister Baron Scarpia, the Chief of Police, with jealousy.

Cavaradossi is hiding a political fugitive and Tosca is drawn into a web of danger and deceit by Scarpia, who abuses his power to force the passionate singer to betray her lover's secret. When Cavaradossi is imprisoned and faces death, Tosca will stop at nothing to save him. She has her revenge on Scarpia, but realizes too late that she has been double-crossed.
